

Week 2

What's something silly you believed as a kid that turned out to be totally wrong? (Like thinking the moon followed your car!)

Where is your favorite place to go when you want to learn something new? (A parent? Teacher? YouTube? Wikipedia?)

Why do you think it can be hard to know what's true these days?

Read John 14:6–7

What does it mean when Jesus says He's 'the way, the truth, and the life'?

How does knowing Jesus help us see what's really true about life?

Have you ever had a time when following Jesus' truth was hard — but worth it?

How can you live out Jesus' truth this week — maybe at school, with friends, or at home?
