

Week 2

What's something you strongly believed earlier in life that you later realized wasn't true?

Where do you usually turn when you're trying to figure out what to believe — people, experiences, social media, research, faith?

Why do you think truth feels harder to define or trust in today's culture?

Read John 14:6–7

How does following Jesus shape the way we understand what actually matters in life?

Have you ever faced a moment where following Jesus' truth felt uncomfortable, unpopular, or costly? What happened?

What's one situation this week where you'll need to intentionally live aligned with Jesus' truth?
