

Week 1

On a scale of 1 to 10, how much freedom do you feel like you have as a middle schooler?

When you hear the word "freedom," what comes to mind? What about "responsibility"?

In what ways do you think freedom and responsibility are connected to each other?

Read Genesis 1:26-28

Why do you think God created us to have freedom? And why do you think God also asks us to be responsible with that freedom?

What's one way you can know you're using your freedom wisely?

What would it look like for you to be responsible with your freedom...

- a. At home?
- b. At school?
- c. On social media?
- d. With your friends?
- e. In your faith?
